Exposing @7h3W1n73rmu73 (Twitter)
aka Meghan Aroura Mornay
aka Megan Christine Bentzley
(of Las Vegas, NV and formerly Philadelphia, PA and elsewhere)

For ease of reference, we will refer to her throughout as “Meghan”.

Meghan Is An Extremely Serious Threat to Leftist Comrades and Communities

- Meghan, aka @7h3W1n73rmu73 on Twitter, is an extremely disturbed and obsessive serial stalker and harasser with a long history of cyberstalking and harassment. She previously targeted sex workers in the Philadelphia domme scene, but after relocating to Las Vegas, she has set her sights on anarchist and antifa communities particularly in Chicago and Portland.
- She (literally) cosplays as an anarchist and antifa but in reality is an extremely racist, misogynist, violent harasser, abuser and manipulator who advocates reporting people to the cops and sending people to prison.
- She is behind at least 15 social media sock accounts that have been harassing and threatening antifa and anarchist comrades from November 2020 to the present.
- For the past month and a half, her stalking and harassment has escalated dramatically to sending extremely racist and violent rape and death threats to a WOC comrade, and going full fascist on Twitter with extremely vile and abusive attacks on various leftist individuals and causes.
- The following page contains recent photos of her. She is 42 years old and about 5'5" to 5'7", of medium build.

Meghan's Recent Fascist Escalation

- On April 23, 2021, Meghan created the @JProudboy88 and @takendowntrash Twitter accounts. The following screenshots of just some of her tweets from these accounts speak for themselves.
- CW: Extreme racism (including anti-Black and anti-Asian racism), police violence, anti-BLM hate, anti-LGBTQ hate, transphobia, misogyny, suicide, threats of prison, rape and death.

- The following are comments Meghan made to an Asian woman comrade's Instagram post in April 2021. (The screenshots are taken as of April 24, 2021.)

Meghan's Harassment of Portland Activists

- In early April 2021, Meghan created the @Patriot78092243 Twitter account that went after Portland activists in particular.
- Within an hour of the Patriot account's first post, Meghan conveniently jumped into the conversation from her personal @7h3W1n73rmu73 account to (attempt to) create a narrative that it was Joey "JoJo" Camp behind the harassment.
- Meghan claims to be part of the Portland activist scene, but Portland activists she claims to be personal friends with confirmed with us that they do not know her personally and do not recall ever meeting her in real life.

- She also harasses via email, and has claimed that the examples to the right are someone else harassing her Portland “friends,” but we know that it is all Meghan behind these as well.

Meghan Has a Long History of Online Stalking and Harassment, Using The Same M.O.

- This is far from the first time Meghan has engaged in this conduct. She has a long disturbing history going back several years (at least) of claiming to be the victim of online harassment and stalking that is in fact her behind the fake stalking accounts.
- See, for example, one of her previous Twitter accounts, @DominaLexx (which she used for her work as a professional domme and is still up and public as of April 30, 2021).

- In an eerily similar situation as the @Patriot78092243 Twitter account that went after Portland activists this past month, in 2018 Meghan created a fake @AllDomsR_WH0RES Twitter stalker account. Conveniently, again, she jumped right in with her @DominaLexx Twitter and saved the day as both victim of the stalker and hero identifying the stalker.

A Long History of Complaints, Lawsuits and More Against Meghan for Stalking, Harassment, and Slander

- We knew it was Meghan behind the harassment of our comrades before we even knew her real identity and former full name. So we were not surprised, though it was still quite a shock, to find that Internet searches of her previous name, Megan Christine Bentzley, turn up a plethora of complaints about her, and even lawsuits filed (and judgments won) against her, for disturbingly similar patterns and methods of online harassment, stalking, and slander.
- The complaints indicate that she is known in the Philadelphia domme community as someone who has “slandered, harassed, outed personal info and stalked pro dommes in the Philadelphia area under the guise that it’s her stalker out to get her. There is no stalker. There never was. It’s all her.” A few of the complaints we’ve found are included on the following page.

Backing up Michelle Lacy and any others

AUTHOR: N1513 - (United States)

SUBMITTED: Saturday, November 03, 2018

I don't know Michelle Lacy or most of the other dommes but I will back her, them and any other victim any day. Not only has Lexx harassed, stalked, bullied, slandered and libeled pro dommes but she's also done the same to people in her personal life and she's been doing this for years. She started by phone with a domme who is now deceased - Lexx was jealous of her. Lexx eventually graduated to internet harassment and bullying. She also tries to turn pro and lifestyle dommes against each other by creating untrue rumors. She is jealous, bitter and needs deep psychiatric help. Lexx has multiple Twitter and Facebook accounts. Some she pretends to be a victim, some police some she's the harasser. In one social media account she pretends to be the friend of an "old lady" who was the "victim" of a guy that Lexx dated. How sick.

The moment she knows someone is aware of her manipulation and lies she begins the harassment. The moment a guy she's dating witnesses her crazy, doesn't want to have children with her, dumps her and in some cases kicks her out she begins libeling and slandering them. Lexx/Megan, you left a very sloppy trail. Don't bother attempting to clean it up since everyone you lie to, stalk, harass, bully, libel and slander have screenshots and screencasts. Last but not least Lexx, in at least one situation you violated copyright law using multiple photos of professional models with their faces blurred but those images were easy to trace back to the original source. You're digging yourself in deeper. More law suits can happen if you don't stop.

Completely Untrue, Written by Domina Lexx Envy of Philly

AUTHOR: Michelle - (United States)

SUBMITTED: Thursday, September 13, 2018

This is the 6th time Domina Lexx Envy has tried to slander and ruin the career of a dominatrix who has travelled to Philly to take appointments on Rip Off Report.

Not only is this not me (Michelle Lacy), but I also do not have Venmo, do not take appointments in this proposterous sloppy and ridiculous way, and I do NOT take appointmnets at the address posted above. It doesn't take a genius to figure out that the "person" who wrote the review is not a real client and that this never happened. Several hundred of my clients can attest to this. Note that the review contradicts itself and takes a stab at my "looks" which is obviously something a woman would do to another woman. She has been caught trying to do this to other friends of mine, we caught her red-handed. She has slandered MANY DOMMES on this website under fake names. She also has pretended she was the police to try to terrify the women of Destiny's Chambers (a commercial dungeon in Philly). She is SO mentally unstable that after she wrote this fake review, she emailed me showing it to me and the review was written MINUTES before she contacted me about it.

the review was written MINUTES before she contacted me about it.

I am one of the most well-reviewed, most sought-after Mistress in the industry today with 11+ years of returning regulars, most of who can be found all over my social media raving about what a great Mistress I am on a constant basis. There are over 100 positive reviews of sessions with me found on domina review boards all over the net.

Due to her insane behavior, Domina Lexx Envy lost her dungeon, her friends and is in the middle of a very large legal battle with the Mistresses of Philly who she harasses as well as an enormous case with her ex boyfriend. She has a legal history of slander and harassment and has been arrested with a mug shot.

She also goes by VIOLET THE PARAMORE and has several dozen fake twitter accounts (some pretending to be Philly law enforcement).

Sorry Lexx, but I do return to Philly still, and I am booked solid more than ever. My career has only been exploding each week. Fake bad review is only going to give you 5 minutes of joy but 5 years of nail biting as I continue to file my harassment/defamation case.

Stop Lexx/Megan

AUTHOR: N1315 - (United States)

SUBMITTED: Saturday, November 03, 2018

Everyone knows you're stalking, harassing, bullying, libeling and slandering many people. Everyone knows you lie and pretend to be the one who is being harassed. No one believes you and you didn't even try to cover your tracks well. You lie and fabricate things to try to make yourself look like a victim. You stalk yourself, your friends, your exs, your colleagues then you try to be the hero, the mystery solver by saying which ever person you're currently jealous of "stalked" you. This is disturbing and sick. Many have real evidence against you. If you want more lawsuits this is how you get more lawsuits, Lexx/Megan.

Meghan's Support for Police Involvement and Swatting

- From her previous Twitter account, @DominaLexx, Meghan repeatedly mentioned reporting others, including sex workers, to police on multiple occasions, likely with false reports.
- She has admitted that she “went after some people” and that “I don’t consider swatting as ‘harassment’ but whatever”; swatting is fair game to her.
  - Swatting is a harassment tactic of deceiving an emergency service into sending police (the goal is usually a large number of armed officers) to another person’s address. It is extremely dangerous as it can result (and has resulted) in the death of the targeted person.

A Neverending Litany of Lies

- Meghan claims to currently be employed as a VR/AR (virtual reality/augmented reality) developer (games and musician avatars) for a company in Los Angeles, CA. We reached out to the CEO of this company, who she claimed is her direct boss, and he confirmed that she does not work for him or the company. She continues to insist that she does.
- She also claims that up until recently she had a career in InfoSec, and is a hacker and computer programmer.
- Among many other additional claims, she has stated that she was formerly an aerospace engineer, with degrees in aeronautics from MIT and UPenn.

Social Media Handles Used for Harassment

- Thus far, we know Meghan has used the following handles to harass and threaten comrades online over the past six months:

Meghan's Burner Phone Tactics

- Meghan has bragged on Twitter about her “amazing social engineering skills” and her “ton of burner phones.” In addition to creating seemingly infinite numbers of sock social media accounts, Meghan also uses her burner phones to manufacture fake direct message and text conversations, as well as comments like the one to the right from a completely fictional woman named “Brianna Harford”.

Karens Maximus

- Over the past year, Meghan appeared seemingly out of nowhere and made ongoing efforts to befriend comrades in the anarchist and antifa communities. Only recently have comrades come to realize her extremely disturbing web of lies and harassment campaigns.
- When confronted recently about her lies, Meghan of course denied lying and responded by engaging in further blatant lies and manipulation. With her penchant for false accusations and overt racism, she is a textbook Karen (though a particularly extreme one) who pulls all of the classic Karen moves, including asserting that a person like her would never hurt a soul and could never possibly be behind such racism, misogyny, and threats of violence. She asserts that, rather, it is she herself who is the one being wronged or victimized, and regularly claims that she is a victim of harassment, rape and death threats, but she has never provided any support for those claims (such as screenshots, account handles, etc.).
- As part of her manipulation, when she is confronted she will play her innocent white woman card to the max, immediately changing the subject away from her blatant lies to claims like, “I have been nothing but good,” and “I don’t deserve any of this.” She will also make sure to constantly remind you that she is “crying non stop” or “can’t stop crying” after being confronted for her proven malicious lies and stalking.
- Meghan also uses her @7h3W1n73rmu73 Twitter performatively as a cover, making a show of tweeting support for POC, anti-racism, antifascism and other leftist principles at the very times she is harassing and threatening leftist comrades with vile racism, misogyny, transphobia, anti-BLM hate, threats of prison and worse.
- We have every reason to believe that Meghan is armed and dangerous and a serious physical as well as severe mental and emotional threat to anyone she interacts with, whether online or in person.

Follow-Up

- Our goal is to prevent Meghan from harming another soul ever again, because we have every reason to believe she will only become more dangerous if she isn't shut down immediately and effectively. She is an extremely racist and misogynist, violent abuser, and the entire world must know about her and her methods. She has already caused immeasurable and irreparable harm to our comrades, and cannot be allowed to escape consequences.
- We can provide, to trusted and vetted comrades and resources only, further information showing that Meghan has been behind all of the harassment discussed above. We will not allow Meghan or others like her to perfect their (shoddy) craft by disclosing this information to the general public or bad actors.
- If you personally know Meghan or have interacted with her online and have also received harassment from anonymous online accounts, or even via text to your phone, it is likely no coincidence.
- If you have any questions, additional information to offer, or would like more information, please contact ExposingMeghan@protonmail.com.
